

THE CALEDONIAN

LOCAL AND STATE ITEMS.

We endeavor to make THE CALEDONIAN valuable to our local, state, and national friends in Caledonia, Essex and Orleans counties will confer a great favor to us and very materially to the interest of the paper by sending us items in a brief, legible form.

Brief Local.

—Wanted at this office, an apprentice to the printing business.

—The Personal Sketch for this week is necessarily crowded out, and will appear on our next outside.

—On account of the unfavorable weather the lecture before the Ladies Library Association advertised for last Monday evening, was postponed one week. It will be given at the South Church next Monday evening at 7 o'clock.

—These are important times—even the boys seemed impressed with the necessity of doing something a little extra. We were reminded of this fact by receiving an egg from Frankie Brown that weighed a quarter of a pound.

—Our readers will not forget the union society Sabbath School Convention to be held at Danville next Wednesday, and full notice of which was given in last week's paper.

—The exercises commence Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock, and will be held at the Danville place. For places of entertainment persons are requested to enquire at the post-office.

—John Morse, Esq., of this town, seems to have been unanimously elected county commissioner at the election last week.

—We are glad to believe that there is a chance about the appearance of Col. Preston's name among the missing in the Kilpatrick venture down at Richmond. Probably some other man is meant, as in the summing up of the casualties the colonel's name does not appear. Our boys did bravely at Richmond, and the loss of Col. Preston would be most irreparable to the regiment.

—The sleighing has all wasted away in this section, leaving us a fortnight earlier than usual. A hard rain Sunday and Monday (some near coming a freshet. In Burlington ten inches of snow fell on Monday, it being the heaviest snow storm of the winter.

—A house full of friends called upon Rev. Geo. H. Clark, at St. Johnsbury Centre on the evening of the 8th, and left behind $75 as a token of regard for their pastor.

—The farm advertised in this paper belonging to the estate of the late Asa Morrill will be sold at auction the 17th of this month.

—A correspondent at Lyndon Centre, in a communication received this week, is disappointed to find that place from the charge of exactly brought upon it by one of the town officials in our advertising column last week; and as proof of his assertion he says, "it is not disgraced by a single word among its citizens." Pretty convincing testimony, we must acknowledge.

—There we will say one word about the communication signed "Justice" in this paper, and emanating from the Corner. The fact that there was in the warrant calling the town meeting an article to see if the town would refund to a liquor seller a fine imposed upon him for breaking the statute law, was sufficient to array all the temperance men not only against that article but against the men who countenanced it. And it is gratifying to know that on this very question the temperance party outvoted their opponents two to one. It is a mark of progress whether other towns would do well to emulate.

—The Burlington Times and Montpelier Argus are permitted to copy.

—We understand that Joel Fletcher & Co. have opened a store at Newport, with Henry Fletcher as the resident partner at that place.

—At the annual meeting of Excelsior Book and Lumber Company, held March 4, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:—C. L. Carpenter, foreman; John Howard, 1st att.; Horace Wright, 2d att.; John P. Eddy, clerk and Treasurer; S. Hurlbert, steward; P. G. L. Cushing, J. L. Hamlin, G. G. Morrison, standing committee. Adjourned to last Tuesday in March.

—The Denier Troupe is coming Friday and Saturday evenings of this week, at Union Hall. The following notice we copy from the Denier Troupe:

The Denier Troupe at Village Hall last evening performed all they advertised, and entertainment was entirely free from anything coarse or vulgar. At the opening of the exhibition, Mr. Henri assumed the audience that all he should attend to do would be to see if he performed his tricks with such dexterity that none could "see it." In a male deception even seen a reality. In the evening sight of hand he astonished and pleased all, and put the exhibitions of Alexander, Harrington, King and others in the shade. His ventriloquist powers are also well known, and this part of his programme was well admired. The pantomime, an unique novel feature, (new to this place), was well received with shouts of laughter and applause.

—Duty for the Gore!

It will be seen by the table published elsewhere that Goshen Gore has a deficiency of five men to be drafted for the 10th, had not the draft been postponed. This is rather a laugh on the Gore, and especially so if the current story be true, that a man was enrolled there who had been dead two years. However this may be, the Gore has now enrolled 21 men in service, 21 persons between the ages of 20 and 45 years. Eight of these have been exempted on the score of disability, leaving 13 to stand the chance of draft.

—The five men have already been furnished with substitutes and one paid commutation. This not only shows a pretty good record for the Gore, but also shows the inconsistency of their neighbors, as the towns about the Gore did for the men by paying them. Go away with your Holland and other districts: we claim the banner for the Gore!

—In Lyndonburg.

On the night of the 7th inst., the sugar belonging to Leander G. Smith, took fire and was consumed with its contents.

—Case unknown.

Personal.

Capt. A. M. Beattie of the Vermont 3d regiment was presented a fine sabre by his company a short time ago. On the sheath is engraved the names of some of the battles they have been in, also the words, "Given as a mark of our confidence and esteem." The sabre is a very good one costing over $100.

Our thanks are due Messrs. Morrill of the House and Collamer of the Senate for valuable public documents, among which we highly prize the Report on Agriculture.

The Petition Question.

MR. EDITOR: Your correspondent, H. A. C., in THE CALEDONIAN of the 26th ult., expresses his disbelief in the petrification of human bodies, and thinks the description I gave (and it was from the testimony of eye witnesses) of the very singular condition of Trescott's body when removed from the Cemetery in this village some nine years since, indicated simply an adipocereous state. I gave the facts as they appeared at the time; facts, at least, in the minds of the witnesses. And upon further inquiry it is positively asserted that the flesh upon the face, tested by touch of the spade, was as solid as stone, and had the appearance to the eye, of stone. This certainly militates seriously against your correspondent's theory of simple adipocere—an oily or waxy condition of the flesh. I made no attempt to account scientifically for the phenomenon, and will, only say at this time, that I can substantiate my previous and present statements by affidavit that would be admissible in any court of justice. C.

A Card.

MR. STONE:—I desire, through THE CALEDONIAN, to return my grateful thanks to the people of Lyndon for their very generous donation of one hundred and one dollars. That, together with their unvarying sympathy and kindness, have laid me under lasting obligations to them. May they be rewarded a hundred fold in this world and in the world to come have life everlasting.

Lyndon, March 7. A. McMULLEN.

MR. EDITOR:—I wish, through THE CALEDONIAN, to thank my friends in this town for the manifestation of their kindly regard for me and mine, made by a visit to us on the 3d inst., and contributions of things material and needful, to the amount of some sixty dollars, most of which was money.—The Lord bless them, and reward them with an abundance of treasures imperishable.

T. R. SPENCER.

St. Johnsbury, March 8.

Suprise Parties.

In a neighboring town not long since a party of about 40 of the respectables paid an unexpected visit to a highly respectable family. The next morning after the party the good lady of the house went to fill her tea kettle when lo, and behold, the would-be gentlemen (or ladies) had filled the tea kettle with soap and potatoes. Such gentlemen ought to be taken before a magistrate and fined not to exceed one bushel of potatoes and a gallon of soft soap.

Justice to Lyndon.

MR. EDITOR:—Your correspondent of last week, signed "Citizen," referred the public to the list of town officers elected, as some of the prominent temperance men in town. Allow me to give you the names of other equally as prominent temperance men, voted for, (but not elected,) by citizens called by your correspondent "chivalry," "allies," "rum and democracy." Several things, purely local, for this town, called out a full meeting. Among these was the removal of the town clerk's office, from near Lyndon Centre to Lyndon Corner. Also to act upon an article in the warrant for said town meeting to remit to John A. Darling a fine of one hundred dollars, imposed upon him for violation of the license law. An effort was made to fasten this last upon the democracy, but upon inquiry of the selectmen, the fact was revealed that of the four names on the petition to the selectmen, including the man fined, were two prominent republicans in town and county. The democrats did not ask our voters to vote for a man who had been fined the past winter fifty dollars for violation of law as a wholesale and retail dealer in liquors, but did ask them to vote for a man for constable, that had done the business of said office the past year to the acceptance of a large majority of our citizens; one that could easily procure bonds to the entire satisfaction of our town authority, and not subject us to another town meeting to fill up the vacancy. The democracy, as usual, last Tuesday to a man, were in favor of raising money to procure volunteers to aid in putting down the rebellion, and in restoring our Union and preserving our Constitution.—Had a democrat acted or talked as did one of our ex-town-officers, they might justly be called copperheads, secessionists, &c., (as the Boston Journal says of some republicans, who in their zeal for Chase abuse Lincoln). I am glad to say I do not think a man elected or voted for this year would retain the fifteen dollars given them by law for each volunteer, but will gladly give it to our patriotic citizens who go forth to fight our battles. I regret the vote for Mr. Morse for county commissioner was not larger, when so many of our voters were present; and many who were stigmatized by "Citizen" as "chivalry," "allies," &c., not only voted but distributed votes, as in years past, for Mr. Morse, or the temperance nominee. The following is the list of officers voted for by the "chivalry" last Tuesday: "Town Clerk, Samuel B. Mattocks; Selectmen, Charles Folsom, Calvin D. Bigelow, S. R. McGaffey;

Overseer and Agent, Samuel Bigelow; Constable, Geo. B. Walker; Listers, J. T. G. Cunningham, Erasmus Graves, Joshua B. Smith; Auditors, Samuel Bigelow, John M. Weeks, Daniel N.
